African Union Peace and Security Council, 581st meeting, held in Addis Ababa on 9 March 2016

Communiqué

At its 581st meeting, held on 9 March 2016, the African Union Peace and Security Council adopted the following decision on the situation in Burundi:

Council,

1. Takes note of the briefing made by the Commissioner for Peace and Security on the visit of the African Union high-level delegation to Burundi and on the evolution of the situation in that country. Council also takes note of the statements made by the representatives of Burundi, as well as by Tanzania in its capacity as the current Chair of the East African Community (EAC);
2. Recalls its previous communiqués and press statements on the situation in Burundi, as well as the press releases made by the Chairperson of the Commission. Council further recalls the decision taken by the twenty-sixth ordinary session of the Assembly of the Union, held on 30 and 31 January 2016, and reaffirms the responsibilities of the African Union, in its capacity as guarantor of the 2000 Arusha Peace and Reconciliation Agreement for Burundi. Council stresses its determination to fully play its role and take all necessary measures for the promotion of peace, security and stability in Burundi, in conformity with its mandate, as stipulated in the Protocol relating to the Establishment of the Peace and Security Council of the African Union;
3. Welcomes the visit to Burundi, on 25 and 26 February 2016, by the African Union high-level delegation established pursuant to the relevant provisions of the above-mentioned decision of the Assembly of the Union. Council pays tribute to the Presidents of South Africa, Gabon, Mauritania and Senegal, as well as to the Prime Minister of Ethiopia, for their contribution to the efforts of the African Union for peace, security and stability in Burundi. Council emphasizes that their work is an exemplary contribution to African ownership and the resolution of the problems of the continent;
4. Endorses the conclusions of the visit of the African Union high-level delegation to Burundi, as contained in the communiqué issued at the end of the mission. Council welcomes, in particular, the consent of the Burundian authorities to increase to two hundred (200) the number of human rights observers (100) and military experts (100) and requests the Commission to expedite the process of their deployment in Burundi. Council also notes with satisfaction the readiness of the members of the African Union high-level delegation to pursue their efforts, in support of the mediation efforts led by President Yoweri Museveni of Uganda, on behalf of the EAC, particularly with regard to the need to ensure that all stakeholders in Burundi participate in the inclusive dialogue and actively preserve the gains of the Arusha Agreement;

5. Commends the authorities of Burundi for the measures taken to restore respect for human rights, preservation of civic liberties and freedom of the press. In this respect, Council urges the authorities to enhance and consolidate these efforts;
 6. Urges the EAC, in particular, and countries of the region to accelerate the mediation efforts to find a lasting solution to the crisis in Burundi. In this regard, Council reiterates the full support of the African Union to the EAC efforts for the inter-Burundian inclusive dialogue process, led by President Yoweri Museveni, the EAC-appointed mediator and notes with satisfaction the appointment of former President Benjamin Mkapa of Tanzania as facilitator and member of the mediation team. Council reiterates its full support to the mediator and the facilitator in the Burundi crisis and requests them to expedite consultations with all the Burundi stakeholders in order to fix, as early as possible, a date for the resumption of the inter-Burundian inclusive dialogue;
 7. Reiterates its urgent appeal to all the Burundian stakeholders to exercise maximum restraint and to lend all necessary cooperation to the efforts of the mediator and the facilitator;
 8. Welcomes the recent visit by the Secretary-General of the United Nations to Burundi, which falls within the framework of international efforts to further strengthen those led by Africa, with a view to finding a lasting solution to the crisis in the country;
 9. Reiterates its appreciation to the neighbouring countries, which are hosting Burundian refugees, as well as its call to the international community to continue and intensify its humanitarian assistance to the affected population and the host countries;
 10. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
